DENEICE ROBINSON JOINS APERTURE FINANCIAL AS DIRECTOR OF ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE

Management Addition to the Team Expands the Resource Talent Available to Our Clients and Underlines the Firm's Organic Growth

Rockville, MD., September 6, 2006 – Aperture Financial Group announced today that Deneice Robinson has recently joined the firm as Director, Accounting and Finance on the firm's Advisory team. Ms. Robinson will lead Aperture's efforts to deliver high quality financial management support to the firm's emerging businesses and high net worth individual clients.

"Deneice brings the depth of experience and dedicated professionalism that a firm of our size really needs," said Aperture Managing Principal Jeph Mathurin. "We have immediately expanded our capabilities by adding Deneice's skills and talent to our team."

Deneice joins Aperture from Shreve Bowersox, P.C., having served as a Manager for the Washington DC area boutique accounting services firm. Prior to Shreve Bowersox, Deneice served in various roles of increasing leadership with local CPA firms and non-profit organizations.

"I am delighted to join Jeph and the Aperture team," said Ms. Robinson. "Jeph and I have exchanged ideas for years through his affiliation with Shreve Bowersox. I look forward to contributing to Aperture's mission to deliver disciplined financial management to every client."
